I trust that everyone here today was here last week. If not, you missed a tremendous message in the beginning of our stewardship emphasis with the Reverend Bill Bouknight speaking. Bill had three main points of emphasis. First, we must remember and learn GOD owns everything and we are HIS money managers. Second, we can serve GOD or GREED but not both. Third, when our hearts belong to CHRIST the more we give the happier we are! Of course Reverend Bouknight had much more to say that just this, but these were the "take home" key points.

Now with an excellent start, we turn our focus for the next several weeks toward the rest of the story given to us in the testimony of numerous persons from a variety of perspectives. Last year, when I first witnessed this experience, I thought to myself what a great method to give attention to all the key aspects of what stewardship is about. We will look at presence, prayer, service, witness and gifts in this emphasis. Thanks to everyone who is making an effort to see this happen. What is GOD telling you to do for CHRIST’s sake this coming year as you serve JESUS through the ministry at Trinity United Methodist Church? Come HOLY SPIRIT and teach us what we are called to do. AMEN!!!

Blessings for the journey!!!

Pastor Robert
