

All Saints Sunday

November 3, 2024

All Saints is a day of remembrance for the saints, with the New Testament meaning of all Christian people of every time and place. We celebrate the communion of saints as we remember the dead, both of the Church universal and of our local congregation. (From the UM Book of Worship #413)

Prelude Laurie Knapp
(As the Prelude begins, prayerfully prepare your hearts and minds for worship.)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Prayer of Confession for All Saint's Sunday

Eternal God,
In every age you have raised up men and women to live and die in faith. We confess that we are indifferent to your will. You call us to proclaim your name, but we are silent.

You call us to do what is just,
but we remain idle.

You call us to live faithfully,
but we are afraid.

In your mercy, forgive us.

Give us courage to follow in your way,
that joined with those from ages past,
who have served you with faith, hope, and love, we may inherit the kingdom you promised in Jesus Christ.

(Silent Prayer)

Hear the Good News!

Christ died for us while we were yet sinners, that proves God's love for us.

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!
Glory to God.
Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving for All Saints

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing,

always and everywhere to give thanks to you,

Almighty God,

Creator of heaven and earth: God of Abraham and Sarah,

God of Miriam and Moses, God of Joshua and Deborah,

God of Ruth and David, God of the priests and the prophets, God of Mary and Joseph, God of the apostles and the martyrs,

God of our mothers and our fathers, God of our children to all generations. And so, with your people on earth and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are you, and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection

you gave birth to your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death,

and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which he gave himself up for us, he took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread, gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.

Do this in remembrance of me."

When the supper was over he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said:

rink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new venant,poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of ns.Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

nd so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus hrist,we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
; a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for s,as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

hrist has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

our out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
ake them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by
is blood.

Renew our communion with all your saints,especially those whom we name before you—and name in our hearts.

(During the remembrance of names, please feel free to light a candle in remembrance of the saints who have gone before.)

*We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses.
Death has no dominion over them.*

*Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.*

Imighty God,
our people of all the ages live and praise you without ceasing.In our communion with you, we have ommunion with generations past and generations yet nborn.Before your throne we are onewith a great multitude which no one could number, and in praising ou we join with those from every nation.

Grant to your church on earth that as we celebrate the triumph of your saints in glory we may profit by their example and enter with them into the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Responsive Reading for All Saints Day

We remember, O God...

The countless saints of history
who have blazed a trail of courage through time,

We remember, O God...

The tender touch of loved ones,
the example of heroes,
the healing words of comforters,
the remarkable acts of fearless ones.

We remember, O God...

The gentle strength of grandmothers,
the loyalty of friends,
the kindness of strangers,
the joy of children,
the sacrifice of parents.

We remember, O God...

The supreme love of Jesus,
the blessing of his Spirit,
the reminder of his words,
the sharing of his suffering,
the glory of his resurrection:
shown forth in the lives of his disciples,
young and old,
dead and living,
articulate and silent,
strange and familiar,
brilliant and ordinary.

We remember in every time and place the saints of God who have shown us the Lord.

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses...let us worship God with joy!
